WEST BERLIN

24 June 1959

- I. Communist intimidation campaign against West German presidential election in West Berlin on 1 July gaining momentum.

A.

25X6

- B. Such "voluntary" action would provide both GDR and Soviets with excuse to disclaim responsibility.

- C. Soviet propaganda has declared that holding election in Berlin "gross and dangerous provocation."

- II. Communist strategy appears to be to intimidate West German assembly members rather than physically to prevent election in Berlin.

- A. However, deliberate slowdowns at checkpoints and other harassment cannot be ruled out.
